Day 1: Travel from Puno (Peru) to La Paz, passing Lake Titicaca you will admire both sides of this immense lake. Arriving in Bolivia's lakeside resort of Copacabana you will appreciate what the 'seaside' is like for a land locked country! We spend the night here.

Day 2: Waking up with views of the Lake we travel to La Paz, stopping at the outer suburbs for an unforgettable view. Night in La Paz.

Day 3: Today we explore the eerie 'Valley of the Moon' a lunar landscape on the outskirts of the city.

Day 4: Return to Puno (discount for one way trips). Today we pass through the altiplano once more and onwards to Puno where the trip ends.
